

ScotHot Food Photography Competition 2019

Category 1:

Good enough to eat

Photographs should be images of food that are ready to eat

The food is the star, and should look delicious

It can be presented on a plate, or as streetfood for example

People can be in the image (as a social setting for example), but the food should be the focus

Category 2:

Food

This is an open category of raw or prepared food

It is more about the creative image

An image that gives an impact or wow moment

Can be abstract – although it must still be possible to identify the subject matter as food

Points to note – applicable to both categories:

- The printed image size should be approx 12x8" or A4
- Images can be in colour or black & white
- Work submitted must have been photographed and post-processed solely by the entrant
- Copyright will be retained by the entrant
- Work submitted may be used online or in print by ScotHot for publication and/or advertising
